PLC Chair

Designed by PearsonLloyd

Simplicity can speak volumes, as the PLC side chair and dining table from Davis illustrate. These visually interesting, yet extremely understated pieces are reflective of modern Danish design. Their smooth, slightly curved lines create a neutral aesthetic, making them perfectly at ease in both classic and contemporary interiors.

Minimal design and neutral aesthetic make the PLC chair by PearsonLloyd an icon of modernity perfectly at ease in classic or contemporary interiors. Artful lines and discreet connection details make PLC beautiful from all angles.

Attention to detail is evident in the construction of PLC. The solid oak frame is assembled using old world craftsmanship and joinery. Natural wood finishes along with playful painted finishes are available. Coordinating tables feature a solid oak base with a variety of top surfaces.
